Tip of the Week:

The Pluto in Aquarius era is finally fully underway as of November 19. The brief entry in late March 2023 lasted a couple of months, and the second entry in late January 2024 lasted 8 months, but now the transit will continue uninterrupted for 20 years!

Pluto in Capricorn, the sign of governments, lasted 16 years from 2008 to 2024, and it has certainly been a game changer on a global scale. In many respects, this 20-year period stands to be even more revolutionary (gulp).

During this Pluto in Aquarius time, AI will likely assume its full momentum transforming every aspect of our lives to the next major level of the digital age.

This next New Moon in Sagittarius on November 30 (or December 1 in the AST, EST and CST time zones), will therefore host Pluto still at 0 Aquarius 13. That Mercury is retrograde as of November 25 and in Sagittarius where it is generally deemed challenged, sometimes described as ‘lost in the forest’, or ‘unable to see the forest for the trees’, as the saying goes... is noteworthy.

Positively, Mercury in Sagittarius can prove to be wonderfully philosophical. Fortunately, since Jupiter is in Gemini, it and Mercury are auspiciously in what is called ‘Mutual Reception’ which uplifts and refines the expression of both planets, (serving to offset the fact that both are in their signs of ‘detriment’), we are blessed to be starting this first lunation cycle of the Pluto in Aquarius era with this added support.

Yet, it remains that it is destined to be powerfully and even radically transformational, so we are wise to be receptive to all the help we can get.

To this end, I have written an in-depth Horoscope for 2025 which I do each year for Members, but an even better way to approach it is to first do a review of 2024. I'm providing this as a special gift this year as we approach 2025. You will see in the article a lot of richly layered information to support your overall understanding and awareness. As for the Horoscope entries, reading the one, or two other signs in addition to your Sun Sign will support this layered insight.

Members get free access to this knowledge, or you can get it in a Reading. To have both and big bonuses as well, go HERE to take advantage of my annual White Saturday special which ends at midnight, November 24.

Have a great week.

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

The Sun in fiery Sagittarius complements your own. Mars in Leo, the third of the three Fire signs adds fuel and an ardent determination to get in the game. So, get ready to get busier, and on a variety of fronts. The urge to travel or embark on some kind of adventure is likely, even if it is via the pages of a good book. Just avoid starting major new initiatives, for now.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

Some deep dives are more practical than others, and this is probably true now. Positively, you feel determined to cover a lot of ground and add a whole list of accomplishments to your year in review, even if they are the icing on the cake. Some measure of research is indicated, perhaps to refine your strategy for gracefully bulldozing into 2025.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Your relationship life is destined for a boost. This will prove especially true extending into December thanks to next week's New Moon. Your enthusiasm to socialize will be even stronger than usual. The one key thing to be aware of is to be true to how you genuinely feel and to choose accordingly, and not simply lapse into telling others what they want to hear.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Pluto in Aquarius will prove intense, yet liberating and empowering for you. Meanwhile, tending to your health includes assessing the quality of your daily habits, rhythms, and routines. Are you as aware as you could be, or would like to be? Set intentions to be more self-reflectively aware with determination to identify assumptions, blind spots, and projections.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

The greatest beauty in death is that it is ever-followed by some form of rebirth. Beyond the mysticism, this could amount to a whole new mode of participation in the world, which you should even be able to see and feel already. Fame and recognition are featured in this destiny, so do what you can to keep it from becoming unwanted attention and infamy.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

The seeds of new beginnings are being sown close to home. Yet, these do include increase and expansion in your public and professional life. That these require contraction, otherwise called discipline, focus, and follow through, is the fine print. So, keep showing up and whistle while your work, celebrating each successful step along the way.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

The Sun entering Sagittarius is destined to boost your spirits, and your energy levels. A weave of feeling adventurous, curious, social, restless, and rebellious could amount to some special pages to add to your memoirs one day. For now, embrace the experiences fully, guided by these impulses, and with clear intention to harness their full potential.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Pluto in Aquarius is destined to shake things up close to home and will invariably impact your relationship life. For now, the emphasis is on your values and priorities, on one hand, and your dreams and ideals, on the other. An assertive push in your public and professional life is also featured and includes key meetings with people with authority and influence.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

The Sun in your sign indicates the urge to take new leads and strides. These are especially likely on relationship fronts. Expansion is indicated, yet it is up to you to take the initiatives required to meet your desires. This simply includes communicating clearly to whom it matters and in ways that count and will be well-received.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

Some cycles call for retreat and time taken to review, reflect and recharge. These feelings are probably especially strong this year. Getting clear on your priorities to prepare for the coming year is featured. Meanwhile, your ambitions are running strongly as is your desire to express yourself powerfully. Just make extra sure that full integrity is leading the way.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

A whole new current of power is flowing through you. It is destined to bring about changes close to home. Yet, these may not go into full motion for another couple of weeks when Venus enters Aquarius. For now, Mercury is inviting your to step back to see a bigger picture and to dream of possibilities. Just be sure to keep your imagination in check.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

The Sun in Sagittarius casts the light on your career and public life in general. Fortunately, Jupiter is helping you to feel a whole new quality of confidence. It is true that Mercury turning retrograde could cause it to waver a bit over the coming weeks. Yet, you can avoid this by voting for yourself and avoid over-thinking. Just focus to ride it out.
