Tip of the Week:

The New Moon at 9 Sagittarius 32 on December 1 has the distinction of being the first to host the advent of an uninterrupted transit cycle of Pluto through Aquarius. It also hosts a Fire Grand Trine including Mars in Leo and the North Node of the Moon in Aries. This is an auspicious aspect indicative of assertive heroism based on a larger vision for humanity.

However, it also conceals some challenges most evidently indicated by Mercury retrograde in Sagittarius, Jupiter retrograde in Gemini, and Uranus in Taurus. At worst, these factors can be interpreted as 'losing sight of the forest for the trees', or feeling lost, injured, overwhelmed, and frightened.

Positively, even these challenges reveal inner help and clues about what we can, and perhaps must do, to prevail, due to the strong influence of Aquarius.

Together, these hidden helpers suggest that with an orientation to higher-minded vision and awareness, (Sagittarius) the dedication of visionary leaders (Mars/Aries/Leo), and free will, these challenges can be overcome.

The strategy required includes healing our sense of identity (Chiron in Aries). In this regard, we need to awaken both to our deeper sense of humanity and to the even deeper realizations of our inherent, spiritual nature, as souls incarnate.

Also in the chart of the December 1 New Moon, the other main issue is indicated by the position of the Black Moon (Lilith) in Libra. Its issues include unconscious conformity, shallow popularity, and people-pleasing, lack of focus, commitment, and resolve to cultivate true intimacy and trust in our closest, personal relationships, (the building blocks of the true strength of civilization).

The 'Black Moon' is the hypothetical point that is related to the orbit of the moon around Earth, and it is symbolic of the negative aspects of one's shadow, or unconscious mode of emotional reaction. Knowing about your own Black Moon in your natal chart can prove helpful in overcoming emotionally-reactive blind spots.

As we transition to the last month of the year, and what a year it's been, take a look back with my 2024: Year In Review.

Have a great week.

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

The Sagittarius lunation cycle is destined to inspire new heights of visionary awareness. The dynamic Mars factor will support your resolve. Venus in Capricorn suggests the need for tools or practical methods which include a weave of technology, networking with key people, and creative, critical thinking. You can do it.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

Sagittarius time can prove challenging for your sensual temperament. Fortunately, Venus in Capricorn will help to uplift your spirits with the cozy comforts and intimate bonding that she implies for you. Mars in Leo, however, is pushing you to make the extra efforts to dig deeper than you might usually, for which you will be rewarded.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Your social scene is getting a big boost. Fortunately, you are in the mood for it too, thanks in part to Mars in Leo amplifying your energy levels. The sweet spot is where culture and tradition merge. In the bigger picture, your willingness to learn and to unlearn as well are important themes these days, so be receptive.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Health considerations are a cornerstone of life. You may be dealing with issues or least concerns that you are challenged to heed and to not deny or dismiss. So, if your gut is telling you to check in, do it now and avoid procrastination. Doing so will alleviate low-lying stress and its related issues. Investments in health usually bring positive returns.

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Sagittarius time is usually one of upliftment and enthusiasm and there are indications that this is especially true this year. Mars in your signs is adding to your determination to take new leads and strides. Other factors indicate the need to give more to people and situations and to keep an open mind regarding the exact methods needed to advance at this time.

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

A boost of optimism and confidence are coming in with this Sagittarius cycle. Professional expansion is indicated, so be deliberate and strategic in this regard. Commitment is ever-important. Currently, it has to do with learning and a willingness to change your approach. At even deeper levels, it has to do with your self-concept.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

It may feel as though lights are switching on in your mind. Fresh thoughts and perspectives are both expanding your overall scope of awareness and inspiring creative inspirations. However, your success requires that you both think out of the proverbial box, and break through it too. To shift, think and act differently than you have done traditionally.

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

Sagittarius time is one of building upon new foundations. Yet, the twist is that the best approach is to be willing to discard the existing one. While this may not always be the case, it appears to be this year. Questions regarding the higher versus the lower road are on your mind as well. The main issue is to clearly discern which is which.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

The New Moon in your sign indicates social expansion. There are indications that your focus is sharp, yet there is more than one target. This requires concentration and confidence. Fortunately, other factors are helping including Mars in fiery Leo. With it about to turn retrograde, you are probably wise to take an independent lead.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

A little time out could go a long way, especially now. The call is to think less and pray or meditate more. Too much thinking often leads to analysis, worry, and self-doubt. Your ruling planet Saturn in Pisces, which began 20 months ago and has another 17 months to go, implies some degree of dissolving of the past to make way for the new.

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

The influence of Sagittarius is destined to ignite a sense of adventure and a deepened quest for answers, facts, truths, and solutions. As hopeful and optimistic as you may be, contending with some doubts might be lingering. Yet, you know that you have to pay your dues somehow to build upon new, and to strengthen existing foundations.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Sagittarius is directly associated with your career and public life in general. The activations to these can begin as early as the Sun enters Sagittarius each year, which is November 21, and another big boost comes with the New Moon. This year, it will activate innovative strategies to usher you to a whole new level.
