"The Pluto in Aquarius era is gaining speed and momentum. It constitutes a 20-year era during which time, humanity will be utterly transformed. Whether this change and transformation process will be deemed positive or negative is debatable, but it is already and will become increasingly complex, socially, politically, and economically, as well as mentally, emotionally, and spiritually." ~ Michael O'Connor

Tip of the Week:

Mercury retrograde crosses paths with the Sun to form an exact conjunction from our home world perspective on Friday, December 6. While not uncommon, the fact that they do so in truth-seeker Sagittarius will synchronize with both truths and lies brought into sharp focus.

This is further supported by Jupiter in its strongest position in Gemini, where repressed anger associated with injustices and corruptions finally has its day in court, as the saying goes.

So, stay tuned to watch the show which, like a drama series or soap opera as it were, is indeed destined to continue, and we are fast approaching some very real dramatic turns, especially over the next couple of years!

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 20)

A slowing down process is underway, offering the opportunity to sharpen your focus and increase your attention on larger matters. Simply getting organized and clearer on your priorities is featured. Both inner and outer pressures to think and act according to what you feel you should do, as opposed to simply want, are also at play.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 21)

An adventurous spirit has been guiding your path. Returns for past efforts and investments made are clearly on your mind, meanwhile, swinging the emphasis to more practical considerations. Thoughts about how to access or stimulate new streams of income while also deciphering where financial leaks can be patched figure prominently.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Sagittarius time generally serves to open you to new people and perspectives. With Jupiter in Gemini, this is especially true and important too. Call it mind-stretching and pay attention to how the fresh stimulation and new learning energizes you. Hold your own center yet turn your attention outward to be dazzled and amazed.

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22)

Healthy living and lifestyle in general is a subjective matter. How you interpret it is up to you. However, taking an honest look at things and exercising the willingness to implement small, meaningful changes supported by a larger vision can help to activate a new momentum. What can you add and what can you subtract to achieve a better balance?

Leo (Jul 22 – Aug 23)

Sagittarius is your Fire Element brethren and it tends to activate flows of creative inspiration. As ever, awareness, receptivity, goals at least, and visionary determination at best, supported by an attitude of co-creation is a timeless formula for success. Ask the following: “Universe, show me my true value and what else is possible?” Ask this consistently until you receive a flow of answers...

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22)

You have entered a cycle of contracted expansion. The contraction part implies discipline and doubling down on your efforts. The expansive part is associated with your public and professional life. Since expansion usually requires a larger and/or stronger foundation, direct a lot of energy to it, first.

Libra (Sep 22 – Oct 22)

You are fast approaching a significant threshold of change and decision. It is so major that it encompasses about 18 months. In the short term, your task is to think big. Look further down the road than you might usually, and the future probabilities, as with a five-year plan. Incorporate the reality that you will be five years older and aim to balance optimism with realism. (I can help.)

Scorpio (Oct 22 – Nov 21)

You have arrived at an important juncture once again. It can be described as a crossroads requiring you to discern what constitutes your best approach. As usual, one path indicates a higher road than the others. The key is to determine what that is, and to summon the wisdom, faith, and courage and pursue it.

Sagittarius (Nov 21 – Dec 21)

Life is an adventure, when you are you. Increasing your social outreach is likely and ideal now. With it comes the challenge of keeping your mind open and wider even than usual. Flexibility in your perspectives and approaches is implied. Practical considerations are playing a key role, especially now through later January.

Capricorn (Dec 21 – Jan 19)

Saturn is your ruling planet and while in Pisces, it has invariably synchronized with an important transitional process that began in March 2023 and will continue through April 2025. Its challenge requires you to unlearn, even more than to acquire new knowledge. What habitual perspectives, interpretations, and self-concepts need to go?

Aquarius (Jan 19 – Feb 19)

Sagittarius is a strong sign for you and can be described as innately associated with your core nature. Combined with Jupiter in Gemini, it is offering you opportunities to increase both your creative critical thinking faculties, and your philosophy of life in general. The capacity to include a wider encompass of possibility regarding perspectives on reality is a cornerstone of true intelligence.

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20)

Sagittarius is directly associated with your public and professional life. It implies seeing a bigger picture and increasing your capacity to think objectively beyond your beliefs and subconscious biases subject to security, as with your comfort zone. If you do not think your perspectives are influenced by these beliefs, then you can be certain where you have work to do.
