Tip of the Week:

It is Mercury's turn to form an exact conjunction with the Sun in Tropical Gemini today, on June 14.

Last week it was Venus. While Venus exactly conjunct the Sun is generally considered a negative influence having a ‘drying’ effect on one’s overall sense of affection and expression, Mercury is deemed quite auspicious. When exactly conjunct the Sun (from our perspective here on Earth), it is described as ‘Cazimi’, a status shared by the Moon on occasion, which translates as ‘in the heart’.

Cazimi Mercury, especially in someone's Birth Chart generally confers an indication of higher intellectual abilities and a heightened ability to perceive life more objectively. As ever, the whole chart must be considered, and there are always exceptions, but when in Gemini, the results can prove quite exceptional.

Have a great week!

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

Due to the strong Gemini factor currently, a busy cycle continues. Positively, you have used this impulse to increase your social outreach. Since Mars entered Taurus a week ago, the pace has likely been slowing yet transferring the focus to productivity. This trend will continue and with Mercury and Venus entering Cancer on June 17, the focus on home and family will deepen.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

You have likely been covering a lot of ground of late, even more than usual. This multi-tasking influence will progress and evolve to new stages and frequencies yet will continue. Positively, the shift is to increased creativity, a momentum that will steadily build over the coming many weeks. This is your cue to shift into maestro mode.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

The Sun in our own sign tends to manifest as impulses and synchronicities to take new leads. It may seem all in the flow of circumstances, but it really is the outer expression of a divine blueprint and timing. This weekend could prove especially good for socializing, which will linger for a while, yet ironically shift to more internal moods, despite the culminating Full Moon.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

Mercury and Venus entering your sign in close tandem on June 17, and then the Sun on June 20 marking Summer Solstice, is an exciting momentum for you. With these factors, your energies will rise along with the inspiration to express yourself more fully and creatively. Jupiter in Gemini however, is a background force that requires more faith and less analysis.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

Gemini time tends to coincide with a stronger sense of your individuality, and increased creativity especially associated with innovation and even inventiveness. Although Jupiter will perpetuate this orientation for many months, if in a background sense, in the forefront you will shift this week to a more internal mood, presenting opportunities to commune with your soul.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

A recent turn in your public and professional life continues through the curve this week. It includes the need for more disciplined focus, follow-through, and commitment. A learning curve is implied yet will be countered with sharing knowledge as well. This shift may seem subtle, but it is quite major and requires faithful diligence.

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

Seeing a bigger picture tends to ignite wonder and awe and requires imagination and contemplation, ideally balanced by faith in the larger flow and purpose of life. The danger is to lose sight of these realities and slip into a cynical attitude. This is where free will can come to the rescue, especially wearing the cape of gratitude for all the good that is.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

While others tend to be more social, Gemini time tends to be more of a deep dive for you. Positively, you are getting answers to long-standing questions. At worst, your wheels have been turning fast and even spinning without traction. The key is to stop overthinking and to shift the focus to your body and senses and more literal movement.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

Your relationship life is undergoing a destined boost which should be quite evident by now. If not, there could even be something wrong, an imbalance of some kind. Things will shift this week into a more internal mood and mode that will last for several weeks. Use this time to go within, meditate, investigate, and research to get answers.

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

Destined changes in the quality of your overall lifestyle continue as a central theme. Are you noticing the signs, picking up on the cues, and taking action? More moderate exercise, better nutritional intake, and more self-care are examples. These could of course extend to your family, and this is when leading by example is the attitude of greatness.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

A weave of creativity and productivity continues to guide your focus and choices. Coloring your world, both figuratively and literally, will bring inspiration and upliftment to your spirit. These actions can be understood to be investments bringing both immediate and long-term rewards. For now, enjoy the transformational process.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

A busy cycle close to home continues and will even deepen yet over the coming days and weeks. This is an invitation to enter what could amount to be the most creative cycle of the year. Be open to both incoming inspirations that you can act upon now, but some of which can be captured as ideas for projects that you will get to a little later.
