Tip of the Week:

Summer’s end for many, at least psychologically as students return to school, coincides with a series of events astrologically. These include a Virgo New Moon on September 1.

Mercury turned direct on August 28 after its triannual retrograde cycle which included a complex bout in Leo, where it is generally regarded as... challenging.

Venus entered its own ruling sign of Libra on August 29 which should also prove uplifting and socially stimulating.

Mars will enter Cancer where it can prove quite edgy on September 5.

Uranus takes its turn to retrograde starting on September 1, just hours before Pluto, also retrograde, re-enters Capricorn.

Uranus at 27 Taurus will retreat as it retrogrades to 23 Taurus by late January 2025 - so if you have planets in this range, especially in Taurus, Leo, Aquarius, or Scorpio, you will likely be pushed to make or adapt to changes associated with unusual or unexpected turns.

Pluto will hover at the 29th degree of Capricorn until November 19 so if you have planets at or near this degree, you can expect the inner impulse (or outer push) to purge and/or change your approach somehow.

Understanding the full spectrum of types of questions you can ask based on areas of focus I cover is outlined in this short video: Learn more HERE.

Have a great week!

Weekly Horoscope:

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19)

While the theme of balancing work and play continues, a whole new level of inspiration on relationship fronts is rolling in. On the downside, you are about to get busier. This includes a diving urge to get to the bottom of things, which could include a renovation project or two. Yet the focus could be on your attitude.

Taurus (Apr 20 – May 20)

A creative drive continues to guide your focus. The need to give more has become a noticeable theme and it too continues. Deepening desires on relationship fronts are part of the plot and are partly where the extra give will go. Positively, your confidence levels are steadily rising, even though you are busier.

Gemini (May 21 – Jun 21)

Attending to practical matters enters its next and deeper phase now. This could simply include having everything you need for various adventures that are calling you out. Things could get a little more serious before the week is out regarding health considerations and what you need to do to feel strong.

Cancer (Jun 22 – Jul 22)

A busier cycle or at least contending with more on your mind of late continues. A turn of focus to create more beauty and harmony close to home is part of the plot. This could require you to become more assertive with matters and perhaps certain people as well. Just be careful not to overdo it with aggression.

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 23)

Practical considerations are that much more emphasized for you now than others. Yet, the twist is that the best way to tackle them could well require some measure of inner work. This can include changing your perspective, attitude, reasoning, or approach, or all the above. Nothing personal, it is simply time, and your first main task is to consciously cooperate with the process. By doing so, answers will emerge.

Virgo (Aug 24 – Sep 22)

The New Moon in your sign will activate a whole new burst of energy, determination, and drive. Inspirations to enter new territory will also become apparent and if you do, you will likely make progress. You may have to push against the grain somehow, which could include those of habitual beliefs and self-concepts.

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22)

Venus entering your sign will likely inspire you to express yourself in new and appealing ways. This could require new skills and/or tools. Yet, you might also feel the urge to retreat for a while. Combining these factors, the time is right to focus on personal development and acquisition of knowledge and training.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21)

Everyone will feel and notice the array of planetary shifts that will occur this week. What could prove most noticeable for you is the desire to be more independent and authentic to how you feel. In other regards, you could experience an ardent push for freedom that could prove revolutionary.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21)

Fresh starts on public and professional fronts could be a source of inspiration, but also possibly of stress. Making key moves is indicated and doing so might require discipline and resolve. You should be prepared to put in the extra time and effort. Fortunately, your ambition levels will rise starting this week.

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19)

A whole new perspective is emerging in your mind. This includes the bigger picture over the longer term. A steadily rising realization that you will have to get to the bottom of matters is featured. This could include taking approaches that you did not previously even consider. New tools and skills may be required.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 19)

A cycle of change and transformation is underway. It could prove subtle or obvious, but it has already begun and will continue and even deepen due to the influences of the new lunar cycle. This could prove true, especially on relationship fronts. Venus and Jupiter will prove helpful, so you are protected.

Pisces (Feb 20 – Mar 20)

New activations on relationship fronts are destined and these could prove quite fruitful indeed. Perhaps the biggest challenge will be to be willing to give more than you might have planned. Fortunately, your confidence levels are holding strong, and this supporting factor will help smooth out any edges.
